WOMEN'S WELLNESS FITNESS

Women's Wellness Fitness category was officially recognized as a new discipline by the IFBB Executive and the IFBB Congress on 4 November 2016.

The assessment should take the whole physique into account. The assessment, beginning with a general impression of the physique, should take into consideration the hair; the overall body development and shape; the presentation of a balanced and symmetrically developed, complete, athletic looking physique; the condition of the skin and the skin tone; and the athlete's ability to present herself with confidence, poise and grace.

The physique should be assessed as to its level of overall body tone, achieved through athletic endeavours and diet. The body parts should have a nice and firm appearance with a decreased amount of body fat, similar to this exposed by bikini fitness athletes. The physique should not be excessively muscular and should be free from muscle separation and/or striations. Physiques that are considered too muscular or too hard must be marked down.

The assessment should also take into consideration the tightness and tone of the skin. The skin tone should be smooth and healthy in appearance, and without cellulite. The hair and makeup should complement the "Total Package" presented by the athlete.

The judge's assessment of the athlete's physique should include the athlete's entire presentation, from the moment she walks onstage until the moment she walks offstage. At all times, the total package of the Wellness Fitness competitor must be taken into account.

Judges are reminded that this is neither body fitness nor women's physique contest. Competitors should have shape to their muscle but not:

- Separation
- Definition
- Very low body fat level
- Dryness or density that are seen at body fitness competitions
- Muscle size and quality seen at women's physique competitions

Any competitor who exhibits these features is to be marked down.

The use of tans and bronzers that can be wiped off is not allowed. If the tan comes off by simply wiping, the athlete will not be allowed to enter the stage. Artificial body colouring and self-tanning products may be used provided that it is applied at least twenty-four hours prior to the Prejudging. Professional competition tanning methods (airbrush tanning, cabin spray tanning) may be used if applied by the professional companies and qualified personnel. Sparkles, glitter, shiny metallic pearls or gold colouring are prohibited whether applied as part of a tanning lotion and/or cream or applied separately, and regardless of who applied them on the competitor's body.

The excessive application of oil on the body is strictly prohibited; however, body oils and moisturizers may be used in moderation. The IFBB Chief Judge, or a delegated by him official, will have the right to make the decision if a competitor's attire meets the criteria established in the rules and if it is of acceptable standards and aesthetics. The athlete may be disqualified if the attire doesn't meet the standards.
